

Penguin Books

Penguin Random House SEA

www.penguin.sg

Price	USD 6.10
Category/Subject	Children's Fiction/ Folktales
Binding	Paperback
Format	Special (205 x 205 mm)
Extent	20 pages
Territorial Rights	Southeast Asia
Author based in	Vietnam

Vietnamese Fairytales for Children

Keyline

This series includes famous tales of the treasure of Vietnamese fairy tales, which are told briefly and concisely with beautiful illustrations suitable for kindergarten age.

Description

Welcome to a fantastic world populated by adventuresome animals, magical elves and plants which have lived on for centuries in the traditional fairy tales of Vietnam. Drawn from folklore passed down from generation to generation, eleven enchanting stories have been lovingly retold for preschool children. Young readers can easily find funny discoveries, important lessons in creative and modern illustrations in this Fairytales for children collection.

Books in this series:

God's Uncle The Toad

Pub Date: 29 January, 2021

ISBN: 9789814914901

Nowadays, whenever the toad clenched his teeth, people would know the rain was coming. Though tiny, the Toad was called as "Heaven's Uncle". Why was that? The story began such a long time ago when the drought covered the earth...

The Invisible Cloak

Pub Date: 29 January, 2021

ISBN: 9789814914918

The wealth in the castles was getting less and less. There was a rumor that a god had taken the wealth from the rich and delivered to the poor. However, nobody knew that, the God was actually a normal person wearing an invisible cloak...

The Story of the Monkey

Pub Date: 26 January, 2021

ISBN: 9789814914925

In this story about the origin of monkeys, an ugly maid became beautiful after smelling the scent of a flower in the middle of a lake. But when her master's family tried that in the hope of becoming beautiful as well, they all turned crooked and full of wrinkles...