Synopsis:

The book draws its inspiration by caricaturing cats following its dream of becoming an Astronaut, Athlete, Chef-owner, etc to tell stories about following dreams.

It's a Big Life! You may be small and are a kid (young or an adult), but you can still have a big life, make a huge difference and impact. If the kids can find that drive, perseverance, and beliefs, they too can achieve it, nothing is set in stone in life, just passion and determination to succeed. The cats in the book are depicting what one can be happy about, what makes one happy and the different values that one can learn from each cat. Even if you are sad, fearful, these moments will pass, and remember what makes you happy.

A positive book to remind you while navigating this big life the courage to pursue your dreams, happiness and what matters.
